Conditions for the participation on the festival

To facilitate your group's participation in the upcoming festival organized by the Mediteranean Organization, please adhere to the following guidelines:

- If your group expresses interest in participating in the Festival, kindly complete the Application Form available on our Official Website. Upon completion, submit the form by clicking the "Send" button and the form will be automatically delivered to us.
- Alongside the application, provide the biography of your group by sending it to our email address. Include 5-6 high-resolution photographs featuring the participants. Present a video (group presentation demo, lasting 30-40 seconds) or provide a valid link to your group's YouTube channel, if you have one.
- Following the successful submission of the required documentation, the Mediteranian Organization will promptly issue an official invitation for your group's participation in the festival.
- Upon receiving the official invitation letter, participants are required to send 30% of the total participation fee to validate their attendance at the festival.
- The entire payment sum is required to be settled in full upon your group's arrival at the designated festival venue.

Important

- All festival participants are requested to prominently display their country's flag and a banner-board featuring the group's name for a distinguished representation during the event.
- During the festival, each participating group is allocated two performances, with a maximum duration of 12 minutes per performance, unless otherwise stipulated in the program.
- Musical accompaniment for performances may involve live bands or music sourced from a high-quality CD.
- There are no age restrictions for festival participants.
- The festival imposes no limitations on the number of participants from each group.
- Other members of participant groups or individuals expressing interest in the festival are subject to the same participation fee as registered participants.
- As a gesture of appreciation, The Mediteranian Organization has prepared plaques, photographs, and videos showcasing the festival participants.
- Groups have flexibility in adjusting their duration of stay, which may exceed or fall short of the originally displayed days in the program.

The organizer reserves the right to change the Terms and Conditions of performances or excursions and individual items from the program due to objective circumstances.
The organizer reserves the right to cancel the festival for objective reasons.
