INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL FOLKLORE, CHOIRS & ORCHESTRAS TARANTO - ITALY 03. - 07. August 2017.

Festival is organized by Mediteranian Organization in cooperation with local municipalities, chambers of commerce and local folklore ensemble. The festival will be covered in media by the local and international press and television. Mayors or the deputy mayors, from the cities of festival contestants, will be honored guests of the festival at the expense of the organizer.

Taranto is a coastal city in Apulia, Southern Italy. It is the capital of the Province of Taranto and is an important commercial port as well as the main Italian naval base. It is the third largest continental city of Southern Italy: according to 2011 population census, it has a population of 200.154 inhabitants. Taranto is an important commercial and military port. It has well developed steel foundries, oil refineries, chemical companies, few shipyards for building battleships, and food processing factories. Taranto is known as "The Spartan City" because it was founded by the Spartans in 706 BC. The city is known as the "city of the two seas" because it is washed by the Great Sea in the bay between Punta Rondinella to the northwest and Capo San Dante to the south, and by the vast reservoir of the Little Sea.
