Rome Rome is the capital of Italy and the Lazio region, also known as the "capital of the world", "the eternal city" or "city on seven hills". It is home to over 2 million inhabitants. According to legend, the city of Rome was founded by the brothers Romulus and Remus on April 21, 753 BC. Today, Rome is a city of marvelous contrasts and is one of the most visited in the world. It is believed that as many times as one visits Rome, each new trip will be equally exciting and different. The unique combination of history, priceless artistic values and traditions, the charms of glorious Italian cuisine, music, fashion and irresistible charm are just some of the reasons why millions of tourists visit Rome every year and keep coming back.
