XI INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL of folklore, choirs & orchestras SOFIA, BULGARIA "Serdica dance" December 03 – 06, 2020

Festival is organized by Mediteranian Organization in cooperation with local municipalities, chambers of commerce and local ensemble. The festival will be covered in media by the local and international press and television. Mayors or the deputy mayors, from the cities of festival contestants, will be honored guests of the festival at the expense of the organizer.

Sofia is the capital and largest city of Bulgaria. It is located at the foot of Vitosha Mountain, in the west of the country. The city is strategically located in the heart of the Balkan Peninsula. Sofia's history is 2400 years long. Its old name, Serdika, comes from the Celtic tribe Serdi who founded the city in the 5th century BC. By 1879 it was a relatively small settlement, when it was declared the capital city. According to population, Sofia is the 15th city in the European Union with an estimated population of 1.3 million. The Globalization and World Cities Research Network website has declared Sofia a Beta City. Most universities, cultural institutions and business events in Bulgaria are located in Sofia.
