KRAKOW - one of the most beautiful cities in Europe and one of the most important touristic, cultural and educational centers of Poland. It is considered a cultural capital of state and it never stops to fascinate all of its visitors. Krakow's old town is listed as a global cultural heritage by UNESCO. Every part of the city is remarkable and attracts the visitors like a magnet. That is the main reason why Krakow is alive in every period of the year, in accordance with its rich history. Actors, musicians, painters, movie makers and artists in general contribute constantly with their work in making that special atmosphere described as “magic” by all the people who visit this great city. Krakow is a phenomenon that combines tradition and the past with the present. Krakow is colorful, vibrant, dynamic, cosmopolitan city full of energy and great fun on every step, where any visitor will find the content of his interests and tastes.
