XIII INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL of folklore, choirs & orchestras BUDAPEST – PRAGUE “Friendly Dance” November 02 - 06, 2023

Festival is organized by Mediteranian Organization in cooperation with local municipalities, chambers of commerce and local folklore ensemble. Budapest - Budapest is the capital city and the industrial, economic, cultural, educational and touristic center of Hungary. Budapest is the largest Hungarian city and one of the few capital cities on “the beautiful Danube”. Also, it is often credited as one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. Joining Buda and Obuda from the left bank and Pest from the right one, it became the only city situated on both banks of Danube. Hungary is very well known for its delicious food and more often for its local wines.

Prague – the Golden City, the City of a Hundred Spires, or the Mother of Cities as it is also called, will leave you breathless. Situated on the banks of Vltava river, according to many testimonies, it is the most romantic, most beautiful and best conserved city in Europe. Starting from the X-th century, it was home for princes, kings, emperors and presidents, in a perfect harmony of gothic, renascence, baroque and art-nouveau styles. Today, Prague is a European metropolis, a city full of life and with quality entertainment opportunities, from shopping centers to the numerous pubs and restaurants serving the famous Czech beers.
