XI INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL of folklore, choirs & orchestras “Terra delle Gravine”

TARANTO-PALAGIANELLO-ROME, ITALY July 31 – August 05, 2023

Festival is organized by Mediteranian Organization in cooperation with local municipalities, chambers of commerce and local folklore ensemble. The festival will be covered in media by the local and international press and television. Mayors or the deputy mayors, from the cities of festival contestants, will be honored guests of the festival at the expense of the organizer.

Palagianello - is the smallest municipality in the western part of the province of Taranto. Historically associated with the civilization of the Stone Age: the current center of the village is located near the eponymous gorge, which for centuries represented the natural defenses, and on whose slopes of the Middle Ages developed a complex and stony village, which is now visibly linked to the modern part of the city.

Taranto - is across the bay with the same name in the Ionian Sea. It is also called the "city of the two seas" because it is engulfed by 2 seashores. The brightness, the colors, the air, the friendly people, the history, the culture, the sea ... thousands and thousands of elements form a unique combination that make Taranto a unique place full of charm.

Rome is the capital of Italy and of the Lazio region. Rome was called the “Eternal City” by the ancient Romans because they believed that no matter what happened in the rest of the world, the city of Rome would always remain standing. Exploring the city centre by foot surrounded by glorious monuments and colossal remains takes you back in time to the “glory that was Rome”. The symbol of the city is she-wolf that suckled Romulus and Remus.
