XIV INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL of FOLKLORE, CHOIRS & ORCHESTRAS ZAGREB, PULA, ROVINJ - CROATIA „Istarske Igre“ September 12 – 15, 2023

Festival is organized by Mediteranian Organization in cooperation with local municipalities, chambers of commerce and local folklore ensemble. The festival will be covered in media by the local and international press and television. Mayors or the deputy mayors, from the cities of festival contestants, will be honored guests of the festival at the expense of the organizer.

Zagreb, the capital of the Republic of Croatia, but also the most important cultural, economic, cinematic or sporting destination of the country. It is located on the southern slope of Mount Medvednica, on the banks of the Sava River. This European city is worth a visit due to its many historical monuments and its medieval architecture.

Pula, the largest city and port of Istria, is a busy commercial and administrative center, but also an attractive holiday destination for many tourists, in which the sun shines 2350 hours per year. The city's tradition is recorded in every stone, as evidenced by the large number of cultural and historical monuments from almost all periods of its past, many of them being part of the fabric of the city.

Rovinj - In the past, fishing village and fishing port, Rovinj has retained a strong fishing spirit. On the coast, in the center of Rovinj, there are still many fishing boats and boats of all kinds. The picturesque Istrian city is an oasis that unites the beauty of nature with exceptional climatic conditions, which makes staying in Rovinj at any time of the year comfortable for all those wishing for vacation, relaxation and rest.
